The Applicant provides consent to the Department of Social Development:

- To conduct a SD Record Check, as described below, and
- To disclose the outcome of the SD Record Check to the agency/service named at the top of this form.

The purpose of the SD Record Check is to review Social Development files to determine if the Applicant has been a person identified in the following:

- a) a court order based on a finding by the court that a person has endangered a child's security or development as described in paragraphs 31(1)(a) to (g) of the Act or a person's security as described in paragraphs 37.1(1)(a) to (g) of the Act;
- b) a finding by the Minister, as the result of an investigation by the Minister, that a person has endangered the security or development of a child as described in paragraphs 31(1)(a) to (g) of the Act, where the person has been informed of the finding of the Minister; and
- c) a finding by the Minister, as the result of an investigation by the Minister, that a person has endangered the security of another person as described in paragraphs 37.1(1)(a) to (g) of the Act, where the person has been informed of the finding of the Minister;
- d) who has been found, in accordance with section 27(4)(d) of the Act, to operate a community placement resource in a manner that is dangerous, destructive or damaging to a user, where the person has been directed by the Minister to terminate the operation of the community placement resource.

Applicants with any of the above-noted criteria cannot be approved in the delivery of programs and services funded and/or approved by the Department of Social Development, including:

- operate or work in an early learning and childcare facility, adult residential facility, child placement facility (for example: a foster home or group home), in an AFLA or at Adult Development Activities Program & Training (ADAPT);
- live in an adult residential facility or child placement facility operated out of a personal residence, except as a client receiving services as part of an approved case plan;
- provide home support services, such as attendant care and homemaker;
- become an adoptive parent.

The Applicant acknowledges that he/she has read and understands the purpose of this consent. Applicants who are not in agreement with the outcome of the SD Record Check may request a review in writing.
